Each completed comment template received by the comment deadline will receive consideration by the drafting committee and the ASB. The ASB accepts comments by email. Please send to comments@actuary.org and include the phrase 'ASB COMMENTS' in the subject line. Please note: Any email not containing this exact phrase in the subject line will be deleted by our system's spam filter.

The ASB posts all signed comments received to its website to encourage transparency and dialogue. Comments received after the deadline may not be considered. Anonymous comments will not be considered by the ASB nor posted to the website. Comments will be posted in the order that they are received. The ASB disclaims any responsibility for the content of the comments, which are solely the responsibility of those who submit them.

Restating comments verbatim or with slight variations may slow down the ASB review process. If you wish to reinforce any comments provided in another commentator's submission, please clearly state how your comments agree or differ.

III. Specific Recommendations:

Section # (e.g. 3.2.a)	Commentator Recommendation (Please provide recommended wording for any suggested changes)	Commentator Rationale (Support for the recommendation)
2.1	Actuarial Communication—A written, electronic, or oral communication issued by or under the direction of an actuary with respect to actuarial services.	Actuaries should not be able to avoid responsibility for actuarial communications that they set up to be sent (and perhaps drafted) indirectly through AI tools/automations (or by other humans). Adding the "or under the direction of" wording to the actuarial communication definition helps accomplish this while mirroring the wording used in Precept 3 of the Code of Professional Conduct for U.S.-based actuarial organizations.
